

Bird Race Rules:

1. Each team will consist of 4-5 members and each team must include an expert birder (preferably) who is familiar with the site's/region's avifauna.
2. Choose the name of any bird as your team's name.
3. Each team will have to choose a captain (whose name will have to be provided in the registration form).
4. There is NO registration fee to take part in the Nandur Madhameshwar Bird Race.
5. Each team will have to create checklist of species they spot in the eBird mobile app developed by The Cornell lab of ornithology. Download the eBird mobile app for Android / iOS.
6. Please ensure you login the sightings for Nandur Madhameshwar Wildlife Sanctuary only.
7. The team will have to email the checklist phoenix8585@gmail.com at the end of the race using send email option after submitting the checklist.
8. If you are a first time eBird mobile app user, kindly check the short video tutorial provided for a demo on creating a checklist. Also, we have provided some of the links below to get acquainted with using eBird usage.
9. Birding is limited to boundary of Nandur Madhameshwar Wildlife Sanctuary.
10. Each team must remain as a single unit for the entire day and till the evening programme.
11. The organizers will not provide transportation, incidental expenses, breakfast or lunch during the Nandur Madhameshwar Bird Race.
12. A team is free to choose its own route for the day.
13. You can walk and trek as much as you may within sanctuary boundary.
14. This Bird Race is a FULL DAY EVENT and will end with dinner at a chosen venue.
16. The Nandur Madhameshwar Bird Race begins at dawn and ends at sun-down. Plan your day in such a manner as to converge at the evening venue not later than 6 pm for the get-together. Please plan your routes properly. Also, note that the evening's programme would get over close to 9.00 pm. Hopefully, you wouldn't mind one groggy get-up on a Sunday morning, for the love of the feathered birds.
17. The race will be conducted on 20.01.2018. It will start from Chapadgaon Eco Tourism Complex at 6.00 am.
